He said those are instances that are "serious and clearly demonstrative of his inability to recognize the significance of marriage".

Dr. Noel Fabian's previous annulment case was denied by the Imus, Cavite Regional Trial Court Branch 22 in 2017 and subsequently upheld by the CA on May 11.

He presented a psychiatric report showing that he has Obsessive-Compulsive Personality Disorder, rendering him psychologically incapacitated from complying with fundamental marital obligations to his wife, with continue to page 3

Mayor Elect Anarna, Binisita ang Silang Market, Planong ayusin at pagandahin ang Pamilihan

SA pamamagitan ng isang Facebook post, ibinahagi ni Silang Mayor Elect Kevin Anarna ang kaniyang naging pagbisita sa pamilihan bayan ng kanilang munisipalidad upang inspeksyunin ang mga kinakailangang ayusin.

tamang systema ng pagtatapon ng basura ng mga tindahan kaya lalong dumudumi tignan ang ating palengke. Madumi at walang tubig ang public cr. Ibang-iba ang ating palengke kumpara sa mga karatig-bayan. Kaya mas kakaunti na ang dumadayo dito para mamili."

Kasama ang ilang lokal na opisyal ay inikot nila ang wet and dry section ng palengke.

Ipinahayag ni Anarna na isa sa kanyang bibigyan pansin ay ang pagsasaayos sa mga naturang bagay para sa ikauunlad ng kanilang palengke.

Aniya, "Bukod sa mabaho at madumi ay nakita natin na mali ang pagkakadiseno at pagplaplano ng ating palengke. Walang maganda at maayos na drainage system at walang tubig sa wet section. Ang daan ay masikip lalo na po sa isdaan. Dahil walang maayos na drainage system naging maputik at basa ang loob ng palengke. Wala ring

"Kailangan rin magkaroon ng tamang displina ang mga nagtitinda para magkaroon ng tamang pagtatapon ng basura. Mas luluwag rin ang daan kung nasa tamang spasyo lang ang mga tinda at hindi lalampasan sa kanilang pwesto. Kailangan magkaroon ng timbangan ng bayan na madaling makikita at mapupuntahan ng mga mamimili. Gawin two-way din ang mga daan ng tao papasok at palabas ng palengke para hindi masyado malayo ang lalakaran ng ating mga kababayan."

VP bet Pangilinan urges voters, watchers to secure ballots

By Ma. Cristina Arayata

TANZA, Cavite – Vice presidential candidate Francis "Kiko" Pangilinan on Monday urged voters and poll watchers to keep an eye on the ballots and ensure these are secured.

"Panawagan natin syempre bantayan natin. Wag tayo umuwi hangga't maari ng hindi natin naipapasok yung ating balota sa machine mismo. Konting pasensya, konting tiis. Tatal matatapos din lahat ito. Wag tayo bibitiw 'ika nga. (We urge the voters to guard the ballots and as much as possible, don't go home until they could personally put the ballot into the machine. Have patience and let us not give up)," he said while waiting for his turn to cast his vote at the Inchican Elementary School in Silang, Cavite.

He arrived with his wife, actress Sharon Cuneta, at the polling venue around 10 a.m. They queued for three hours and were able to cast their votes around 1:25 p.m.

A number of netizens on Monday posted about faulty vote-counting machines (VCMs) in their polling precincts.

Pangilinan said he was not surprised that there would be malfunctioning machines, basing it on what happened in 2013 and from the reports he was receiving while heading to the polling venue.

"I hope and I pray that this won't be like what happened in the 2019 elections," he added.

"In 2019, about 3 million votes in certain regions were affected by corrupted SD cards and malfunctioning VCMs. That's a big number," Pangilinan said.

He also urged the public to head to the polling precincts early, so if there would be obstacles like being unable to find their needs, there would still be time to fix such problems.

Further, Pangilinan called on poll watchers to take precautions and be meticulous with regard to the ballots.

"Busisiin lahat. Pag iniwan ang balota, bantayan. Huwag papayag kung saan-saan ilalagay yung balota. (Examine everything. Don't allow ballots to be placed just anywhere)," he said.

Pangilinan has always made addressing food security part of his speeches during his campaign with running mate, presidential aspirant and Vice President Leni Robredo. (PNA)

To cap off the significant MOU signing, Executive Director Donald James D. Gawe delivered his closing remarks where he said, "Together, PNVSCA and CFO envision the BaLinkBayan Program as an integrated and unique platform to re-engage Overseas Filipinos through investment, philanthropy, and volunteerism. The partnership signifies that both parties are committed to achieving their mutual goal of making the country a better place through citizen engagement and partnership."

Meanwhile, emerging discussions on ecosystem restoration urge 'new inspiring and hopeful narratives' in forestry communications. The ASEAN, as a region rich in forest innovation and knowledge, brought to the fore key lessons and insights. As part of the panel on a sub-theme session on strengthening communication and education, Head of Communication and Public Affairs Mr. Earl Paulo Diaz called for an innovative approach to forestry communication. He emphasized that through communications that allow users to think, say, and feel, the public outside the forestry sector can become active ambassadors of forests.

Concluding the congress, the Seoul Forest Declaration focused on how these vital ecosystems help combat the multiple crises humanity faces, including climate change, biodiversity loss, land degradation, hunger, and poverty. The Declaration will be transmitted to the upcoming Conference of the Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity, as well as to the next Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

"The outcomes of the historic World Forestry Congress align with the ASEAN's emphasis on conserving and restoring important ecosystems that are crucial in building towards a resilient region," said Dr. Lim. "Through the AGI, the ASEAN region is committed to contributing to ecosystem restoration and building a green and healthy future for forests and people."

Such an innovative way, the BOI official stressed, will indubitably accelerate investments in the country and provide jobs for many Filipinos. For the closing remarks, Ms. Terrado emphasized the significance of an enhanced collaboration between the two agencies to foster better services for the investors. (BOI)

The BOI official underscored that the OneSEC provides convenience in transactions with the investors. For him, the BOI employees' participation at the said event was significant, as the One-Stop-Shop (OSS) is part of the Ease of Doing Business (EODB) advocacy that will be truly advantageous to the stakeholders of the BOI.

[This training is not only for the IAS. Why did we include other frontline services of the BOI? Because BOI other frontliners are also asked about this particular platform. What's OneSEC? How to register?]," the BOI official said.

Director Delos Reyes said that the training was imperative for the BOI employees so that they could properly and Technicians course and the provisions of much-needed tools and equipment from DTRA will surely enhance BFP's Special Rescue Force's (SRF) capability to respond to CBRN incidents, especially with the newly created Hazmat and CBRN Teams in Cagayan de Oro and Puerto Princesa," said SRF Director Chief Supt. Romel Tradio. "This strong partnership fosters security and progress."

DTRA has been a longtime partner of BFP, enabling both the U.S. and the Philippines to learn best practices from each other. As the premier CBRN response agency in the Philippines, BFP continuously holds refresher and sustainment training on the tactics, techniques, and procedures necessary to stay ahead of the emerging risks and threats to the Philippines.

"This training was significant in enabling us to support the Philippine firefighters in their mission," said DTRA Director of Onsite Inspection and Building Partner Capacity David L. Musgrave. "Since 2013, DTRA has worked closely with a number of Philippine units by providing training and equipment to enhance their ability to respond to incidents involving chemical, biological, or radiological material. We are very proud to support the efforts of our Philippine partners to bolster the safety and security of their nation."

Plans for future DTRA capacity-building activities in the Philippines include training on a new mass-casualty decontamination system that was donated to the Southern Philippines Medical Center in Davao, additional virtual trainings for CBRN awareness, and opportunities for BFP officers to travel to the United States and other countries for multinational training events once travel restrictions are lifted.

DTRA works continuously to enable the U.S. and partner nations to counter and deter WMDs as well as other emerging threats to human life.

In April, DTRA also held a training in Tuguegarao City to boost the Philippines' capability to detect diseases and reduce biological threats. This training was built off of a longstanding cooperative partnership between DTRA's Biological Threat Reduction Program (BTRP) and the Philippine Department of Agriculture Regional Animal Disease Diagnostic Laboratory (RADDL) network.

It focused on improving capacity to safely detect, map, and report zoonotic disease, specifically targeting improvements in the biosecurity and biosafety practices necessary to effectively manage anthrax—a naturally occurring pathogen in the Philippines that has the potential to cause disease in animals and humans. It additionally supported the capability of RADDL II to characterize and map local disease burden, enabling improved risk assessments and bolstering it as a central line of defense against biothreat agents.

Let go of hatred, unite for country: Lacson

MANILA – Senator Panfilo Lacson anticipates living a normal life as a civilian in his home province of Cavite in case he does not win the presidency.

Farming is included in his retirement plans.

“Yeah, farming. It is something I will do. I will go back to farming in Silang,” Lacson told the media after casting his ballot at Bayan Luma 1 Elementary School in Imus City a little past 7 a.m. on Monday.

Recovering and regaining his strength after three months on the campaign trail nationwide is another.

He said he is raring to resume his treadmill sessions and eat normally again, which he started on Sunday when he ate fried catfish.

“Either I go to Malacañang or I go home. If I go home, I want to regain my vanity. Napabayaan natin pati exercise. Tapos hindi makakain because of the campaign dahil takot kang kumain ng marami (I even failed to exercise. I couldn’t eat well because of the campaign. I did not want to eat much),” said Lacson, who will turn 74 on June 1.

Whatever the results of the elections may be, he said is hoping all candidates would let go of animosities and respect the decision of the majority.

“Good luck to all of us. Sana kung sinuman ang manalo sa amin, kalimutan na ang anumang (Whoever prevails, I hope the candidates would forget the) animosities, bitterness, hatred, ‘yung pinagdaanan kasi (whatever we went through because) after all, we can’t move on as a country kapag laging (if we remain) divided. We have experienced that. And once you are the leader of the country, you are the leader of the country and not of your supporters,” Lacson said.

He and running mate, Senate President Vicente Sotto III, will resume their duties as legislators on May 23 and until the sine die adjournment on June 3.

The former national police chief is proud of the way he ran his campaign.

He said there might have been heartaches but no ill feelings.

“There is no substitute to a clear conscience. We ran this campaign as honestly. Ang daming level ng (So many levels of) discourse. And for that, we are thankful that we are able to maintain what we have started. After today, lahat burado na, para bang (let’s delete everything, like we) start from zero, start from the starting line,” he said. (PNA)

It added that psychological incapacity “refers only to the most serious cases of personality disorders clearly demonstrative of an utter insensitivity or inability to give meaning and significance to the marriage”.

“We reiterate that irreconcilable

“(The) Philippines is one of six country recipients, supported by STOP TB Partnership and funded by USAID. It is our goal to improve the treatment success rate of DS-TB to >90 percent and interim treatment outcome DRTB to 85 percent by 2022, and reduce the burden of traditional support measures for observed therapy and posttreatment follow-up on health systems and people with TB as measured by client satisfaction,” Dr. Marianne Calnan, Chief of Party-USAID’s TB Platforms noted.

According to the World Health Organization’s Global Tuberculosis Report 2021, due to the pandemic, the Philippines is one of the top countries that saw a huge drop in the number of TB cases reported between 2019 and 2020 because of the lack of testing.

In 2021, Calabarzon records a total of 62,367 TB cases with the province of Laguna having the highest case notification rate at 15,234; followed by Cavite with 14,584 cases; Batangas with 12,928; Rizal with 12,052; Quezon with 6,145 cases; and Lucena City with 1,475. The treatment success rate for the whole region is 94 percent. (PR)

Resolution led by Vice Gov. Revilla in 2021 to promote the wage increase of Caviteños and in April this year, the public consultation was held throughout the region successfully.

“It has been four years since the last increase in the wages of workers in Cavite. It is time to raise it now, especially since the price of commodities has been rising relentlessly due to the rise in oil prices,” said Vice Governor Revilla.

He added that the distance between Cavite cities and towns in the National Capital Region (NCR) particularly the City of Bacoor is less than 6 kilometers away, Imus is 10 kilometers and Kawit is 13 kilometers.

It is expected for the wages of Caviteño workers to increase before the new administration takes over.

According to the DOLE IV-A Regional Director, it is not mandatory to surpass the 30 days after the public hearing with the result that the wages of workers in CALABARZON will be greatly increased.

“I have a positive view that we can raise the wages of workers not only in Cavite but in the entire region” RD de Guzman concluded. (Ruel Francisco, PIA-Cavite)

the hospital for the benefit of the vulnerable and at-risk populations, especially in several GIDA (geographically isolated and disadvantaged areas) areas,” Valencia said in his message during the ceremonial hand over Thursday of new tools for improved TB care held at the DOH Calabarzon Regional Office in Quezon City.

“The DOH Calabarzon is in full support and committed to roll out these tools in the region. Through our integrated approach, the new tools would definitely speed up our goal of achieving a TB-free Calabarzon,” he said.

The donated new tools are one unit of ultra-portable chest X-ray machines with computer-aided detection or artificial intelligence, and five units of Truenat machines.

Fuji X Air Ultraportable Chest X-ray (UP CXR) and CAD4TB are used to screen TB. It is a battery-operated and lightweight ultra-portable equipment that can store up to 100 images with lower radiation exposure and computer-aided detection or artificial intelligence. The UP CXR and CAD4TB will first be deployed in Laguna Medical Center (direct recipient) and all local government units (LGUs) in Laguna as indirect recipients.

It is a cost-effective (low equipment and test costs) minimal biosafety requirements, suitable for installation at peripheral health facilities, and is ideal for active case finding activities in GIDAs. TrueNAT will be deployed in Laguna Medical Center, Pangil RHU, Sta. Rosa CHO 1, Rodriguez RHU I, and General Trias RHU.

Moreover, USAID, through TB Platforms, introduced Video Observed Treatment (VOT) where patients will do self-video while taking medications through SureAdhere App. Videos will be uploaded and transmitted to the Everwell Hub and health staff will receive the videos and ensure treatment adherence is followed. Reports can be generated on the Everwell hub as well. This will be first introduced in all TB Directly Observed therapy (TB DOTS) facilities, Satellite Treatment Centers (STC) and select private providers.

And lastly is the 3HR. It’s a short-course TPT regimen, patients are given a dose of Isoniazid (INH) and Rifampicin (R) daily for a period of three months to stop the TB infection from developing into an active disease. It is recommended for all ages and is the preferred TPT option among children since it is better tolerated, and child-friendly dispersible fixed-dose combinations (FDCs) are available and already in use for TB treatment. This will be introduced to Laguna Province; all DOTS providing facilities hubs/social hygiene clinics and

Why a landslide win for BBM and Sara

With Bongbong and Inday Sara on the same team, she can truly be his partner in national recovery.

The landslide victory of Bongbong Marcos (BBM) and Inday Sara Duterte as the next president and vice president of the Philippines has an explanation. Upon seizing the presidency in 1986, a vindictive President Corazon Aquino started her relentless persecution of ex-President Ferdinand Marcos and his family. Aquino made sure that the Marcoses were demonized in every way possible.

Criminal cases were filed against President Marcos, all focusing on his allegedly ill-gotten wealth. The closest associates of President Marcos were likewise persecuted, and labelled as his "cronies."

President Marcos, whom the Americans brought to Hawaii at the close of the so-called February 1986 EDSA Revolt, wanted to return to the Philippines to defend himself in court. Aquino refused to allow Marcos' repatriation.

That refusal notwithstanding, the criminal cases against President Marcos were still pursued by Aquino's hand-picked Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG), which was headed by an ex-senator whose ambition to become president in either 1973 or 1977 was effectively derailed by the advent of Marcos' martial law proclamation in September 1972.

The big irony of it all is that the PCGG was seen by many as corrupt and incompetent. Many of its officials and so-called "agents" abused their powers. They symbolized institutionalized corruption, and became the purported "evil" they were supposed to fiscalize in the first place.

After 36 years of existence, the public money spent on the operations and expenses of the PCGG was far more than the alleged "ill-gotten wealth" it supposedly recovered for the country.

Aquino and her lackeys continued the demonization of President Marcos even after Aquino stepped down from power in 1992. Her hatred survived her own death, and continued during the administration of her son, President Noynoy Aquino.

After President Marcos died in 1989, the hate-filled Corazon Aquino refused to allow Marcos' remains to be returned to the Philippines. Four presidents after Aquino ignored the issue. It was only the strong-willed President Rodrigo Duterte who finally paved the way for the rightful burial of President Marcos at the Libingan ng mga Bayani.

Even that burial, lawful and proper under the Constitution and the law, was hatefully opposed by sectors closely allied with the Aquino family.

After some stocktaking, the contemporary electorate had had enough of the vindictiveness of the Aquinos, and the anti-Marcos propaganda peddled by the Aquinos and their allies. They also saw in BBM their hope for a better tomorrow, since he has already proved himself a competent local government official, and a hardworking legislator.

The people's disapproval for everything the Aquinos and their minions stood for was undoubtedly manifested last 9 May, when the voters overwhelmingly gave their blessings to BBM.

Just as monumental is the victory of Inday Sara.

Her father, President Rodrigo Duterte, has the political will to lead the nation. President Duterte's quarantine measures saved the lives of many Filipinos during the Covid-19 pandemic. Drug lords were neutralized and drug users surrendered. The streets were safe again for everyone. Infrastructure development was everywhere.

Only the Liberal Party and its opportunistic members were dissatisfied.

Reelecting President Duterte would have allowed a continuation of his accomplishments, but the Constitution forbids a second term for any sitting president.

This is where Inday Sara comes in. She is an independent-minded person, but she is still her father's daughter, and she will want to continue her father's political legacy and accomplishments.

A tough and dedicated Davao City Mayor, Inday Sara has the requisite experience demanded by high public office. She also shares her father's displeasure with incompetence and corruption in the government service. Voters saw a continuation of President Duterte's accomplishment in Inday Sara, and elected her.

With BBM and Inday Sara on the same team, she can truly be his partner in national recovery, and continue her father's legacy of no-nonsense public service.

That, in a nutshell, explains why Bongbong and Inday Sara won by a landslide in the elections.

Facebook Status, Edisyong Eleksyon

MINSAN, nasabi ni Jim Hightower, nagpapakilalang "Kaliwa-populistang aktibista," na sa kulturang pampulitika ng US, hindi mo masasabing malaganap ang isang ideya hangga't hindi ito laman ng mga bumper sticker ng mga kotse. Sa kaso ng naaabot ng Internet sa Pilipinas, Facebook status na siguro ang masasabing katulad. Kaya heto ang ilang panukalang Facebook status kaugnay ng paparating na eleksyon. Sana ma-like.

Nu'ng sumigaw ng "Villar!" si Baby James at nagpahayag ng pagkatuwa si Villar, sinabihan siya ng mga maka-Noynoy: Huwag pagsamantalahan si Baby James. Nu'ng nag-presscon ang nanay ni Villar tungkol sa mga atake sa anak niya, sinabihan si Villar ng mga maka-Noynoy: Di na nahiya, ginamit pa ang nanay na malupit nang mamatay. Eh sino bang gumagamit kay Baby James at kay Cory Aquino to the max sa kampanya?

Kaka-text lang ng isang kaibigan mula Antique. May kumakalat daw na CD doon na may nakasulat sa labas na "NP-PKP, Bagong Alyansa" at may logo ng Nacionalista Party at Communist Party of the Philippines. Sa isang bayan daw doon, may nagkakatag ng "balita" na uupo sa gobyerno si Jose Maria Sison kapag nanalo si Villar. Hindi raw pala militar ang nagkakatag ng ganitong black propaganda, kundi ang mga taga-Liberal Party. Tunay nga: naliligo ngayon sa dagat ng paninira ng LP si Villar at ang Kaliwa.

Paki-verify: Sabi ng isang kaibigan, nu'ng mahina pa raw ang panawagang "Noynoy for President" matapos mamatay ni Cory Aquino, napanood daw niya sa TV na nag-presscon sina Mar Roxas at Butch Abad (campaign manager ngayon ni Noynoy). Ang sabi: Wala pang karanasan si Noynoy sa pamumuno, at dumadaan siya sa "psychiatric help" dahil sa nangyari sa kanya noong kinudeta ng mga rebeldeng sundalo ang nanay niya.

"Abnoy" raw ang tawag ng mga magsasaka ng Hacienda Luisita kay Noynoy. Hindi ko alam kung totoo, pero malinaw na ngayon, na ABNOY siya: American Boy si NOYNOY.

Ilang araw na lang, mahalal na si Cong. Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo. Huwag nating kalimutan: may Randy David na kaya sana siyang labanan, nangakong lalaban sa kanya, pero naduwag noong dulo at umatras dahil daw sa "pamilya" niya. Hindi ba't iyan ang pakahulugan ng "kasamaan (evil)" ni Alain Badiou? "Ang kasamaan ay ang yugtong wala akong lakas na maging tapat sa Kabutihang nag-uudyok sa akin."

Baka ayaw lang ni Randy David na mawalan ng kolum sa Philippine Daily Inquirer kaya hindi siya tumakbo kontra kay Gloria. Paano pa siya mangangaral ngayon tungkol sa kanyang klase ng aktibismo? May kolum nga siya, wala naman na'ng kredibilidad.

Sabi dati ni Jessica Zafrá, "Paano'ng nangyaring hindi pa ako nainterbyu para sa mga tinatawag na sarbey pang-opinyon? Na wala pang kaibigan ko ang nainterbyu para sa sarbey? Na wala pang kaibigan ng mga kaibigan ko ang nainterbyu para sa sarbey? Gusto ko tuloy silang tanungin: Gusto ninyo ng opinyon? Marami akong opinyon!"

May kakilala akong nagtrabaho dati sa dyaryong pag-aari ni Pastor Apollo Quiboloy, malapit na kaibigan ni Gloria at nag-endorso nitong huli kay Gibo. Noong gusto raw ng kakilala kong magsulat tungkol sa ekstrahudisyal na pagpaslang, sinabihan daw siya ng editor na huwag na lang. Hindi raw kasi gusto ng mahal na Pastor ang isyung ito.

"Pribadong usapin" daw ang isyu sa Hacienda Luisita, sabi ni Manuel Buencamino. May mga tao diyan, sobrang iniisip na ang magiging pagbabalik-gobyerno nila kapag nanalo si Noynoy kaya hindi na makapag-isip ang pagtuwid. O pribadong usapin ba ang pagtatrabaho dati sa gobyerno ni Cory at pagpapanggap na "independyente" ngayon?

Ang kolumnistang si Manuel L. Quezon III, ipinagtatanggol ang kawalan ng reporma sa lupa sa Hacienda Luisita. Karapat-dapat magtrabaho sa gobyernong Aquino! Makakabalik na kaya siya sa Malakanyang, siyang dating speech writer ni Gloria?

Aktibista 1: Ang tatag ng nag-iisang uod na hindi pa pumipirma sa pagkuha ni Lord kay Juan Ponce Enrile. Aktibista 2: Wala ba tayong pag-oorganisa sa mga uod?

Villar ka man o Aquino, sinuman ang manalong pangulo, kailangan may nagbabantay, naglalantad, at bumabanat sa gobyerno. Iboto: Liza Maza at Satur Ocampo sa Senado!

Revilla, Lapid, Enrile, Marcos – pasok lahat sa sarbey para sa halalang pang-senador. Magiging trend kaya ito sa mga susunod na halalan? Na kapag matindi ang tutok sa mainit na kumpetisyon sa presidente at bise-presidente, pipiliin na lang ng mga tao ang mga pangalang pamilyar o inaakala nilang kilala nila? Kahit dapat na'ng ibasura?

Sa tingin ko, ang sinasabi ni Jose Maria Sison sa panayam sa Bulatlat.com ay suicide, pagpapakamatay na para kay Gloria na sikapin pang manatili sa poder sa pamamagitan ng failure of elections o ibang paraan – pero hindi ibig sabihin na hindi siya magpipilit.

Mag-ingat sa napakaraming party-list ni Gloria! Huwag silang iboto! Para makasiguro, pumili sa subok na'ng mga partylist ng masa at para sa masa: Act Teachers, Anakpawis, Bayan Muna, Gabriela, Kabataan, Katribu. Pero huwag silang lahat ang iboto. Isa lang!

Sabi ng kolumnistang si John Nery, kapag isinulat daw ang kasaysayan ng eleksiyong 2010, dalawang kapwa-kolumnista niya ang lalabas: si Conrado de Quiros, syempre pa, para sa pagpanawagang tumakbo si Noynoy na pangulo, at si Solita Monsod para sa "independyente" raw na paglalantad sa pekeng kwento ng karalitaan ni Villar. Talaga? Independyente? Lantad na maka-Gloria na halatang maka-Noynoy! Tsaka kasabay lang ng kolum niya ang kay William Esposo ng Philippine Star, na malinaw na kontra-Gloria.

Ito namang si Bong Revilla, wala man lang pagpapanggap na may dala ng isyu ng masa, puro "Otso-otso" na lang ang propaganda. Sapat na ang isyu ni Katrina Halili?

Ano ang ugnayan ng mga berdugong militar tulad ng senatoriable na si Jovito Palparan at ng nagpapanggap na aktibista pero maka-Kanang senatoriable na si Risa Hontiveros? Kumbaga, sina Palparan ang mga sundalong Hapon, si Hontiveros ang Makapili.

Noong eleksiyong 2004, hindi masyadong maganda ang labas sa mga sarbey ng rebeldeng sundalong si Sen. Antonio Trillanes IV, pero nanalo siya. Tulungan nating mag-ala Trillanes ang mga rebeldeng mambabatas na ipinakulong din ni Gloria dahil sa matatag at mahusay na pagtutol sa kanya! Iboto sa Senado: Liza Maza at Satur Ocampo!

U.S., Philippines train to counter weapons of mass destruction

MANILA -- On May 13, the U.S. Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) concluded its two-week training course with the Philippine Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP) on countering weapons of mass destruction (CWMD).

This training, which involved more than 100 participants from each region across the Philippines, focused on the risks that first responders face when encountering a Chemical, Biological, Radioactive and Nuclear (CBRN) incident. A CBRN incident can be accidental or intentional, and BFP officers use their specialized equipment to ascertain what type of chemical or other material is present.

The CWMD Operations

course enabled the students to analyze an incident, plan the initial response, and implement defensive actions to include: the selection and use of personal protective equipment, air monitoring and sampling, technical and mass decontamination, victim rescue and recovery, defensive product control, evidence preservation, and illicit laboratory and improvised device awareness.

The CWMD Technicians course allowed tactical leaders to analyze a problem, plan and implement a response, evaluate progress, adjust as needed, and assist in terminating a WMD incident.

PNVSCA and CFO ink Memorandum of Understanding to Upscale the Implementation of the BaLinkBayan Program

QUEZON CITY -- The Philippine National Volunteer Service Coordinating Agency (PNVSCA) and the Commission on Filipinos Overseas (CFO) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to upscale the implementation of the BaLinkBayan Project on May 10, 2022 at the CFO Office in Paco, Manila. The MOU, signed by CFO Secretary Francisco P. Acosta (Ret. Justice) and PNVSCA Executive Director Donald James D. Gawe, marks the start of a strong and strategic partnership between PNVSCA and CFO in fulfilling the pledge to inspire more Overseas Filipinos to be agents of altruism and volunteerism by collaborating on the development and philanthropic potential of migration through the BaLinkBayan Program.

In his opening remarks, CFO Secretary Acosta expressed optimism that “the partnership will be able to reach out to more kababayans in different parts of the world and provide more opportunities for them to engage in philanthropic activities, thereby assisting the less fortunate here in the Philippines.” He added that the partnership will undoubtedly help provide more effective assistance to overseas Filipinos.

Director Marie Apattad, on the other hand, delivered a presentation about the BaLinkBayan Program to further the audience's understanding of the project. Launched in 2013, CFO's BaLinkBayan is an Overseas Filipinos' One-Stop Online Portal for Diaspora Engagement that aims to connect expatriate Filipinos to social and economic development activities in the Philippines and its many locales by providing a diverse range of options to partner with national and local governments in starting a business, skills exchange, opportunities for donation and volunteer service, and accessing online government services.

PNVSCA's Upscaling Volunteerism Efforts was presented by OIC Deputy Executive Director Ela Victoria F. Sarmago. She began her presentation by sharing the long-term vision of the voluntary sector in the country which is “Volunteerism as a way of life of every Filipino,” then followed by a presentation of PNVSCA's current initiatives to upscale volunteering efforts such as the preparation of the Philippine Volunteer Agenda and

SEC holds training for BOI on establishing a One-Stop Action Center, seen to make investment facilitation more seamless

THE Philippine Board of Investments (BOI), in its aim to make investment assistance and facilitation more seamless, is jumpstarting the establishment of its One-Stop Action Center (OSAC) with the conduct recently (May 4, 2022) of a capacity-building training program for its Investment Specialists. The agency invited experts and resource persons from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to conduct the face-to-face training.

Aimed at strengthening and sustaining the country's competitiveness for investments, the orientation had an objective to speed up the facilitation of investments through a whole-of-government approach. Such initiative is in anticipation of the influx of Foreign Direct Investments (FDIs) and domestic business expansions because of the reforms ushered in by the amendments to the Public Service Act (PSA), Retail Trade Liberalization Act (RTLTA), and

Foreign Investment Act (FIA).

The BOI, the country's lead investment promotion agency (IPA), organized the training as it is about to launch the BOSS (BOI's Online Services System), a platform where clients and stakeholders can transact with the agency for various services such as application for Project Registration, application for availing of selected incentives, submission of Reports, application for Endorsement, among others.
